Skating Lessons :

A number of independent ice skating coaches avail themselves of the world class facilities at the Ice House. Although these coaches are not agents or employees of the Ice House, we are providing a list of coaches that currently teach our Learn To Skate classes. This is solely for your information and convenience. The Ice House does not endorse, recommend, or make representations with respect to the coaches listed therein. The Ice House does not guarantee the accuracy, relevance, timeliness, or completeness of any information relating to these coaches, nor does the Ice House exercise supervisory or disciplinary power over these coaches. Skaters must contact the coaches directly for availability, lesson policies, and instruction times.

Lessons on Freestyle Ice: In addition to coaches fees, skaters must pay a fee to the Ice House prior to getting on the ice. Fees for freestyle sessions can be found under on ice training. All skaters having private lessons on freestyle ice must have their own skates.

Private Lessons on the second half hour of Learn To Skate: Skaters enrolled in Learn To Skate can have a private lesson on the second half hour of their class. Coaches are paid directly. Ice time and skate rental is included with the Learn To Skate package. This option is only available for students enrolled in Learn To Skate and lessons can only be had on the day the skater is enrolled.
